

Dear Learners,

Summer vacations are synonymous with fun, frolic, playing for long hours with friends, going on picnics and exploring new places. But due to the pandemic we all are forced to keep indoors for our own safety. However, there is a lot you can do to make your vacations more interesting, meaningful and constructive.

To help you keep yourselves creative and innovative, we have designed the summer assignments that are designed to your passions, likes and dislikes.

SUMMER BREAK ASSIGNMENT: 1

❖ Making a socks puppet:

Puppets can be used to stimulate conversations and encourage shy children to communicate, making them more confident. Thus helping in improving social skills.

Socks come in pair, yet oftentimes one gets lost and you have to figure it out what to do with the other half of the pair. So learners to make a puppet by using it in creative way.
